 I am a first-year Computer Science Engineering student at Sri Eshwar College of Engineering, driven by a high focus on shaping a promising future. My passion lies in the art of problem-solving, where I find joy in tackling complex problem statements and delving into innovative solutions.

PROJECTS

HTML

As a web developer for SriEshwar Tech,Inc., I have a solid understanding of the basics of HTML and know how to use it to build effective websites. My expertise has allowed me to be a valuable part of the team, constantly contributing to the development of new and exciting projects. Recently, our team has been tasked with creating a comprehensive online survey form for our annual technology conference, and I am confident I can bring my skills to the table to deliver a successful project.

HTML AND CSS

I'm a freelance Web Developer aiming to create stunning online portfolios for my clients. I specialize in creating visually appealing, responsive personal portfolio websites that leave a lasting impression on potential clients and employers. With years of experience in the industry, I have the skills and knowledge to create websites that showcase my clients' skills, projects and achievements in the best possible light.
